The BET – Basic English Training Program

The BET – Basic English Training Program, organized by Lithoglyph (Association of the PG Department of English) at Markaz Arts and Science College Athavanad, affiliated with University of Calicut, was conducted as a soft skill development initiative aimed at enhancing students' spoken English proficiency and overall communication skills from October 15, 2025, onwards. As part of the "Spoken English Broadcast" activity, students actively participated in creating a total of 64 videos, including short speeches, conversations, and role plays based on everyday situations, which provided them with practical exposure to language use. The program focused on improving fluency, pronunciation, confidence, and expressive abilities. It significantly contributed to reducing students' hesitation in speaking English and encouraged active participation and peer learning within the student community.

World Philosophy Day

The PG Department of English at Markaz Arts and Science College Athavanad celebrated World Philosophy Day, an international observance proclaimed by UNESCO. The programme aimed to promote philosophical thinking and encourage intellectual engagement among students. As part of the celebration, a creative initiative titled “Wall of Wisdom” was organized, allowing students to share insightful quotes and ideas. The event highlighted the importance of philosophy in everyday life and its role in shaping critical thinking. The celebration witnessed active participation and fostered a reflective and thoughtful academic atmosphere among students.

EXHIBITION

The PG department of English conducted an exhibition on Gothic Literature with the aim of exploring the evolution, features and cultural impact of Gothic writing and Malabar History at Markaz Arts and Science College, Athavanad. The programme was inaugurated by Dr. CP Mohammed Kutty, Principal, Markaz Arts & Science College. The students exhibited books from different genres in a stall and also arranged charts which showed the biographies of different authors related to English literature. They also prepared working model related with grammatical areas of English. It created awareness about the origins and development of Gothic literature and illustrated Gothic themes through creative student displays, posters, models and performances. It drew special attention from the Parents, students, teachers and visitors. The exhibition served as an effective educational platform to understand Gothic literature beyond textbooks

ALUMNI ACTIVITY

Alumni Report 2025

In April 2025, the 2024 batch students of the English Department organized an alumni meet at Markaz Arts and Science College, Athavanad. The meeting commenced at 11:00 AM in the college premises.

The event began with a welcome speech by Mr. Askar Ali, the Assistant Professor of the English Department, who extended a warm invitation to both the alumni and the current students. A total of 10 alumni participated in the program, sharing their cherished memories and experiences from their college days.

The alumni actively engaged in discussions about their career journeys, offering valuable insights and guidance to the current students. They also emphasized the importance of networking and staying connected with the institution. Several participants expressed their willingness to mentor students, conduct workshops, and contribute to the development of the department through academic and extracurricular initiatives.

In addition to reminiscing about their past, the alumni also discussed ideas to strengthen the alumni network and plan future reunions. The event provided an excellent platform for collaboration and the exchange of ideas between alumni and students.

The program concluded at 3:30 PM with a vote of thanks delivered by Sahla Banu, a faculty member of the English Department. She appreciated the efforts of the alumni and students in making the event successful and emphasized the significance of such gatherings in fostering long-term relationships with the institution.

The meet was a meaningful and nostalgic experience, fostering a sense of belonging and encouraging continued collaboration between the alumni and the college.
